COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 23.

If Reuter's quotation is correct Consols in London yesterday advanced ⅛ to 101¼, but French Rentes are unchanged at 120½, and the 3½ per cent. Indian Loan at 103¼. Four per cent. Enfaced Rupee Paper is ¼ lower at 84⅜, but Fours-and-a-half remain at 91½.

In the Mincing Lane markets there is no alteration reported, and Wheat and Seeds are also last quoted, with the exception of a partial improvement of 3d. per quarter in Calcutta Linseed to arrive. Wallaroo Copper is quoted £1 per ton lower.

The Manchester Piece-goods market yesterday was dull, and although private advices make no material change, Reuter's prices make a decline of 1-16d. in 8¼ lb. and 3-4d. in 11lb. Grey Shirtings and ⅛d. per lb. in 40s. Twist.

COTTON in Liverpool yesterday closed dull, sales 7,000 bales, spot prices showing a decline of 1-16d. in Mid.-Uplands and Good Broach, whilst in London, Bengals, Coconada, and Westerns are all 1-16d. lower. To-day's market is reported steady at unchanged prices, but the sales are only put at 6,000, of which 400 are Surats. In New York ready Mid.-Uplands yesterday were unchanged at 10⅞ cents., but July shipment receded from 10·78 to 10·74 cents. per lb., and to-day there is no change in either quotation.

We subjoin our usual weekly figures showing the statistical position. The total visible supply shows a reduction during the week of 10,000 bales, but the Liverpool stock has increased by 64,000 bales, and is now close on a million bales. Such figures of supply, backed up by the possibility of the next American Crop reaching 7 millions of bales, render any important recovery in prices very improbable; in fact, the position favours the idea that we are steadily settling down to a permanently lower range of values than we have been accustomed to for the past two years. Here there is always a feeling about that because prices have declined there ought to be a reaction, but to our thinking this is one of those cases in which chances of an upward turn are very insignificant.

The American Crop figures to date give the following comparisons :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Week's Receipts	56,000	36,000	36,000
,, Exports to U. K.	44,000	47,000	27,000
,, ,, to Continent	31,000	14,000	9,000
Total receipts since 1st Sept	5,268,400	4,598,600	4,280,500
,, Exports to U. K. ,,	2,282,600	2,008,000	1,782,700
,, ,, to Continent ,,	1,466,700	1,086,900	1,336,000
,, Stock in the Ports	632,000	668,000	402,000
Saturday's Receipts	6,000	5,000	2,600

The total visible supply of Cotton for all Europe on the 22nd instant compares with the two previous years as follows :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Total supply of all kinds	3,100,000	2,565,210	2,239,310
,, ,, ,, Surats	424,000	416,420	389,830
For the U. K. only the figures are :—
Stock in Liverpool	927,000	702,370	606,320
,, London	43,000	39,160	55,660
American Afloat	250,000	182,000	216,000
E. Indian ,,	97,000	137,000	97,000
	1,317,000	1,060,530	974,980
Price of Mid-Uplands	5¾d.	6¾d.	6¾d.
,, Fair Dhollera	4 5-16d.	5 7-16d.	4¾d.
Difference..	1 9-16d.	1 7-16d.	1¾d.

EXCHANGE.—As usual on Saturday there has not been much doing to-day, and apparently as much for that reason as any other the market has ruled very quiet, and may be called partially 1-32d. lower. There is nothing new in the position, and we see no reason to anticipate any important movement either way at present, so nothing can be gathered as to the possible tendencies of the conference. Our quotations are :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 8d.	per rupee.
Do. —telegraphic	1s.7 31-32d. to	1s. 8d. ,,
Do. 3 months sight	1s. 8d.	,,
Credits, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 8 9-32d.	,,
Documents, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 8 5-16d.	,,
France, 3 ,, ,,	2c. 14⅛.	,,

On Calcutta we quote demand drafts at 1-16 to ¼ per cent. discount, 60 days' at 1 per cent. discount.

GOVERNMENT PAPER is quiet but pretty steady. Fours continue firm at Rs. 101¾, Fours-and-a-half in less enquiry at Rs. 109½.

SHARES, although not active, are fairly firm, Bank of Bombays remain unchanged at Rs. 747½. Colaba Land Shares have recovered to Rs. 89¾. In Press Companies there is no change. For Spinning Weaving Mill Shares a rather firmer feeling exists owing to the decline which is taking place in Cotton. Alliance have advanced Rs. 25, Bhownugger Mills Rs. 15, and several other companies are Rs. 5 better, Bombay Burmah Trading Company's Shares are Rs. 15 lower.

COTTON has again been dull to-day, and in some cases, is Re. 1 to Rs. 2 per candy lower, but lower grades of Dholleras for immediate delivery are still scarce and to cover deliveries on Monday absurdly high prices have been paid. We call to-day's prices :—

Good Broach	Ready 200 to	Rs.	205 per candy.
Good Omra,	,,	,,	185 ,,
F. G. F.	,,	,,	174 ,,
G. F.	,,	,,	161 ,,
Good Dholleras	May	,,	186 ,,
F. G. F.	do. ,,	,,	173 ,,
G. F.	,,	,,	170 ,,

SEEDS and WHEAT are unchanged all round. Supplies are large, but the ready demand, coupled with the large contracts to be covered, absorbs all the arrivals.

FREIGHTS are quiet. For Liverpool 32s. 6d. to 33s. 9d. is the ready figure, but the s. s. Marina has been fixed at 35s. with concessions to commence loading on 1st proximo. For other ports there is no change.

PIECE-GOODS on the spot continue as dull as ever, and both from first hands and the bazaar the offtake is most limited.

COALS are decidedly firmer owing to the wants of the companies who find they can supply themselves here at a long way under the first cost at home.

STEAMER REPORT.

GALLE, APRIL 24, 6-30 P.M.

French mail steamer Djemnah from China arrived.

ADMIRAL GORE JONES, Commanding the East India Station, left Bombay on Saturday afternoon in H. M. S. Euryalus, the flagship, for Trincomalee. Mr. Justice Bayley, Mr. Justice Melvill, General Aitchison, General Hewett, and several other gentlemen attended at the bunder to take leave of the popular Naval Chief.

THE Bombay Volunteers' 3rd Prize Distribution, we hear, has been fixed for Friday next, at the Town Hall. Lady Westropp, we believe, will give away the prizes.

WE hear that Mr. Cartwright and Mr. Hammick, C.S., were very successful during Easter in the Rajpeepla jungles. They bagged a fine tiger and tigress, besides other game of a less royal nature.

MAJOR R. S. THOMPSON, of the Berar Commission, passed through Bushire on the 11th instant, on his way to Europe, via Teheran, Tabriz, and Tiflis—a ride of about 1,400 miles. The climate at Bushire is cool and enjoyable at present, several of the mountains in the neighbourhood being still white with snow.

THEY are actually short of Civil Servants in the North-West Provinces. The Pioneer says :—The dearth of covenanted men was never so severe in these provinces. Promotion will probably go lower than ever it did before, but work will at the same time be heavier.

AMONG the pilgrims at the Hurdwar Fair, a correspondent writes to a contemporary, were numbers of Hinduized Afghans from Kabul and Kandahar, who left Afghanistan on the departure of our troops. They could talk very little Hindustani, but seemed generally to be anxious to be allowed by Government to settle in the Dun, and they had asked for land either rent-free or at a nominal rental. There were no accidents during the fair, and no cholera or other sickness ; nor have there been any robberies.

THE Chief Commissioner of Assam, Mr. Elliott, from Dhubri, has gone on a tour for some days in the Garo Hills, probably to make some inquiries regarding the late disturbance there.

ACCORDING to the district reports from Bengal for the week ended the 16th April, with the exception of Howrah, the 24-Parganas, Dhaka, and Chittagong, there was very little rain throughout the province, and it was beginning to be badly wanted in several districts. Cholera was on the increase.

COLONEL SIR ANDREW CLARKE has succeeded Sir John Stokes as Commandant of the School of Military Engineering at Chatham.

AT an annual meeting of the Bombay Millowners' Association, held on Saturday last, the following resolution, moved by Mr. Nanabhoy Byramjee Jeejeebhoy, was unanimously adopted :—"That the Association desires to record its sense of the loss which the Association has sustained by the lamented death of their colleague the Hon'ble Morarjee Gocouldas, whose long experience in connection with the cotton spinning and weaving industry, and the active interest which he took in all matters pertaining to it, rendered his co-operation of great value to the Association. And that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to his family with an expression of the sympathy of the Association in their bereavement."—It was also resolved to record the loss which the Association had sustained by the death of Mr. Dwarkadass Vussonjee.

THE Indian Daily News, remarking that a good deal of interest is generally felt in the fall of Messrs. Simpkin & Co., the sponsors of the Umballa Sweep, says :—It is thought it would be not quite fair to punish them without proceeding against the individual investors, in which case it is rumoured that Lord Ripon and Earl de Grey would be brought within the meshes of the law.

A CORRESPONDENT at Peshawur tells the Lahore paper that the Ameer of Cabul has assumed the monopoly of letter-carrying between his capital and the British frontier. Orders, it is said, have been issued by him to this effect.

A TELEGRAM to the Lahore paper from Kandahar, April 19th, states :—Sirdar Mahomed Hashim Khan, at an interview with Colonel St. John, said that he urgently required more guns, especially heavy guns ; he was at once refused. Eighteen guns and a quantity of rifles presented by Government to the Ameer will arrive to-morrow. Several of the Ameer's cavalry have been killed by the villagers near Kokeran, on their refusing payment for grain supplied. The people emphatically state that Ayoub, willing or unwilling (?), will advance on Kandahar about the harvest season in July and August. The vitality of the Herat faction has been unquestionably demonstrated of late to be supreme. At Maimena there is a rebellion.

Now that the evacuation of Kandahar has actually begun, and between 8,000 and 9,000 troops have been told off to their various stations in India, the Pioneer considers it opportune to urge upon the Government the necessity of linking Quetta with the Indus Valley Railway. "It is imperative that Quetta, at least, should be in direct and rapid communication with the great Indian cantonments, whence regiments must be drawn in an emergency. The strategical value of the position which we have now taken up would be increased tenfold, while the effect upon the wild tribes would be equal to the presence of 5,000 men. That a great trade would be drawn to the line seems also beyond doubt, as the traffic returns from the desert stations on the Sibi line are extraordinary. Now that Major Baring has shown that the bugbear of bankruptcy is an invention—if not of the evil one, at least—of an amateur financier, some efforts might be made by the military authorities to secure a sum sufficiently large to enable the engineers to finish the railway to Quetta."

GENERAL SIR CHARLES MACGREGOR, as Quartermaster-General in India, is said to be acting with characteristic energy. Special arrangements are being made, at General Macgregor's suggestion, for a thorough compilation, by an experienced officer, of topographical and statistical information. This is a step in the right direction. During the late campaign Generals in the field had to depend mainly upon their Political Officers for intelligence relating to routes of march, disposition of the people, food supply, &c.

THE Bengal Government have issued the first prospectus of an Exhibition of Indian Art Manufactures, which will lend its attractions to the Calcutta season in December and January next. The Exhibition is designed at present for higher manufactures alone ; but the Committee may extend admission to any other class that they think fit. Gold, silver, and bronze medals, as well as certificates of commendation, are held out as inducements to exhibitors, in whose interests also a separate agency will be established for the sale of duplicates of articles exhibited, such duplicates not being admissible in the Exhibition itself. The whole management has been entrusted to the Central Committee of the Calcutta Economic Museum, with the Hon'ble Mr. H. T. Prinsep as President.

THE real Eldorado of India, says the Englishman, is Cinchona. "We make this assertion after reading the report of the Darjiling Tea and Cinchona Association for last year, just published, from which we take the following facts:—There was a profit on the past years' working of Rs. 1,87,892-13-4. The estimated crop of bark was greatly exceeded, the total shipment of dry bark having reached 353,608 lbs. ; and, although the results obtained cannot but be admitted as satisfactory, there is considered to have been an element of disappointment in the excessive loss in weight in the drying process during the past season, nearly 44 lbs. of green bark having been required to produce 1 lb. of dry. A sum of Rs. 1,20,000 has already been paid as an ad-interim dividend to the extent of 60%, and a final dividend of 40% on the paid-up capital is now declared, making in all 100% for the year. The estimates for the current season are : Expenditure Rs. 1,06,000, outturn of bark 300,000 lbs., tea 8,000 lbs. Where can we find another company in India showing such favourable results ?"

THE Madras Times mentions "a rumour flying through the air that an officer who lately left India and a high command there has written out to one of his staff to say that the minor appointments of Commanders-in-Chief at Madras and Bombay are to be abolished, and that some fifteen regiments of Native Infantry of the minor Presidencies are to be broken up, the remaining regiments being strengthened." Under these circumstances, our contemporary considers it is just possible that Sir F. S. Roberts may not think it worth his while to go to Madras, but will take the command of the 1st Army Corps in Bengal. "There are to be four army corps, each commanded by a Lieut.-General. Brigadiers-General will be abolished as a rank, and Major-Generals will hold their commands. All this is as it should be. The Generals, Lieuts.-General and Majors-General should be utilised, or, where incompetent, as we have seen some lately, they should be 'coerced.' These rumours may only be rumours ; we give them for what they may seem worth."

THE Pioneer hints at reluction of the number of judgeships of the N.-W. P. High Court. "The Government has not yet finally decided as to the vacancies caused by the retirements of the Hon'ble Messrs. Pearson and Spankie. The idea that the High Court must necessarily consist of six judges, the Executive may perhaps not care, in these retrenchment days, to admit. But it is not unlikely that the strength of five Judges will be maintained. The numerical constitution of the court practically depends on the views of the local Government. 'Law and Justice' is now a provincial head of account ; and doubtless the Financial Department of the local Government is alive to the stern necessity of economy in the highest as well as the lowest offices."

NOTWITHSTANDING all assurances to the contrary (the Englishman says) doubts seem still to be entertained as to the safety of some parts of Naini Tal, "and these doubts are reported to be felt by the highest authority in the province. It is said to be now all but settled that the Lieutenant-Governor will leave the station early in August, or before the rains set in, and make Lucknow his head-quarters. Sir George Couper, it is stated, has been influenced in his decision by the fact that Government House is considered unsafe in the rainy season."

THE Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal has sanctioned the formation of a class for training European and Eurasian women in midwifery. The class will consist of six women, to each of whom an allowance of Rs. 15 per month will, for the present, be given. Of the first six nominations, four will be retained for civil nurses and two will be placed at the disposal of the Commander-in-Chief. This proportion the Government will endeavour to keep up.

AMONG the few officers whose services in connexion with the late Naga campaign have been recognised by the Government, the Englishman notes one omission which has caused general surprise. "We refer to Lieutenant Wingate, the principal Commissariat Officer who, by dint of extraordinary exertions, managed to feed the troops during the expedition under circumstances of exceptional difficulty. Though he was very favourably mentioned in the despatches of the Brigadier-General and in the Report of the Chief Political Officer, his name has not appeared in the Gazette. We trust that, when he gets his captaincy, the omission will be rectified and he will get a brevet, which he richly deserves."

A RATHER curious will case has just been before the full bench of the High Court of the North-West Provinces, which is not a little instructive as showing the opportunities for storing away money enjoyed, if they are so inclined, by persons in the position of Mr. McConners, the testator. He was employed in the Railway, originally in a comparatively humble post, and on very small monthly pay. He, however, rose to be an Engine-Driver, with monthly pay of between Rs. 200 and 300—certainly not a large sum for an educated European to receive ; yet in the course of not very many years he saved money to the extent of Rs. 26,645, which he left by Will (made by filling up a printed form) to an utter stranger, although a brother Railway officer ; passing by, and indeed without any allusion to, any relatives he might have at home. Three of the Judges, viz., Mr. Justice Spankie, Mr. Justice Oldfield, and Mr. Justice Straight, considered that a sufficient case for probate had been made out. The Chief Justice was of opinion that notice should be given by publication of the application for probate in certain English and Irish papers, so as to allow any relatives of the deceased to come and see the proceedings, and, if necessary, be heard for their interest.

THE Englishman gives the following interesting statistics of the results of the late census—compiled, of course, from the preliminary enumeration, not from the final returns. Bombay, 14,025,593. Panjab, 18,795,953, in British Territory, in Native States 3,853,282. Of the population classified as in British territory, 8,153 composed the Khyber troops and three districts were not censussed. At the last census the Panjab showed a population of 17,600,786. The approximate figures for the Central Provinces show a total of 11,098,601. This, however, is exclusive of the returns of the feudatory States, which at the last census amounted to 123,756. The population of Sind amounts to 2,404,934 as compared with 2,192,415 at the last census ; of Mysore to 4,186,399 as compared with 5,055,412 at that period ; of Coorg to 178,283 as compared with 168,312 ; of Baroda to 2,154,469 as compared with 2,000,225 ; of Rajputana to 10,881,166 ; of Ajmere to 455,944. No means of accurate comparison exist in the case of these last two localities. It is remarkable that the Bengal returns have not been yet received, nor those of Calcutta.

PARSEE RELIGIOUS REFORM.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—The Parsees have their periodical fits of religious enthusiasm. It is a relief to find that such ebullitions of pious feeling are not chronic in their nature ; were it otherwise, these blue-blooded descendants of kings and heroes would be too good for our sceptical, scientific age.

The Rahanumai Mazdiasna Sabha is a worthy religious society in its way. One does not often hear of it, and it is not the Sabha's fault ; say, it is rather a virtue it shares with that most patriotic of political cliques, the East Indian Association. But what then? The Sabha is not dead. It only sleepeth. A breeze out of the north takes it into her head to turn Christian. The spirit of the Sabha is up. It is determined to root out the disease. A general meeting of the Zoroastrians is called. Mr. K. R. Cama delivers a sermon. The meeting is much excited. It becomes enthusiastic. Mr. Kama says the Parsees must have a religious reform. Mr. Nowrozii Furdoonji whispers under his breath—ditto. The school-boys grow effervescent—tears run down their cheeks as they shout—ditto. One more deafening one more stupendous effort of enthusiasm. The Framjee Hall is metamorphosed into the scriptural Tower of Babel. When will the much-needed reform come ? Oh ! when ?

As a Parsee, I am anxious to know of what nature this much-talked-of reform is to be. What is it Mr. Kama wishes to reform, Zoroastrians or Zorianism? Mr. Kama and his colleagues seem to think that the Parsees are so utterly ignorant of their religion that they cannot resist the seductions of other faiths. Supposing that this statement is true, how will Mr. Kama remedy the evil? By making the Parsees a great deal more intimate with their religion than they are at present ? By a more intimate acquaintance with the Avesta ? I do not believe for a moment that the remedy will answer. Mr. Kama is a scholar. Will he assert that there are no contradictions in the Zoroastrian scriptures. Will his scholarship enable him to reconcile or justify these contradictions ? I do not think that this is possible. Some portions of the Avesta seem to be monotheistic, while others (and the number of these latter passages is much larger) are decidedly pantheistic. I am aware that pantheism has long gone out of fashion. I am aware that the Parsees love to be classed among monotheists. I am aware that Mr. Kama and other Parsee scholars have wasted much ingeniousness in trying to explain the pantheistic doctrines of the Avesta away. Is this, then, the tendency which Parsee religious reform is to follow ? Surely, the Parsees have a commendable desire to learn a little more of their scriptures. But at the same time they are not justified in accepting as gospel the interpretation of the disciple of Haug and Spiegel. I mean no disrespect to Mr. Kama ; for his labours and industry I have sincere esteem. But neither Mr. Kama nor any one else may be permitted to lay down the law in a matter of the greatest importance. I know the Parsees, like the educated Hindoos, wince under the stigma of pantheism. But the Avesta, like the Vedas, breathes the whole spirit of pantheism. When the Parsees make this discovery, as they will surely do one day, how will they go on with their cherished reforms ? If they are consistent and true reformers and monotheists, they ought, then, to give up Zoroastrianism. I know I shall incur their displeasure when I declare that I am a real Zoroastrian because I am a true pantheist.

The Parsees suppose that their sacred books, with the exception of the few they possess, are all lost. I have reason to believe that they are extant and preserved up to this day in Armenia, in the north of Persia, and near the Himalayas (but I am not sure about the last locality) by Zoroastrians. The recovery and study of these books would be a right step in the direction of Parsee religious reform.

Breach Candy, April 23. S. J. PADSHAH.

II.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Allow me to say a few words through your columns on behalf of the Parsee Reform Association. There is a rumour that no more meetings are to be held on account of a few misbehaving persons. If it is so, it is very much to be regretted. The other day the confusion arose from two causes : namely, (I.) some school-boys, who cannot be expected to take any interest or part in the religious discussion, were allowed access to the hall and crammed the gallery ; and (II.) the Chairman and the promoters of the meeting had not taken their seats on the platform, from where they could have been visible to and heard by the rear portion of the audience in the Hall. Hence the latter had often to stand, to catch a glimpse of the speakers. I beg to suggest that our popular Chairman, instead of closing the movement entirely owing to the conduct of a few, should give notice that school-boys shall not be allowed to attend the future meetings, which would have the desired effect.

MAIWAND.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—With reference to "One Who Knows" letter in to-day's Bombay Gazette, I beg to state that an officer who fought at Maiwand with distinction informs me that by far the most active and zealous ecclesiastic present was the Rev. Father Jackson, a Catholic priest.—Yours, &c.,

April 22nd. SUUM CUIQUE.

COURTS-MARTIAL.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—"Cerberus," purveyor of "Chips" to the Times of India, is himself a "wonderful thing," and "sagacious" to boot, but also a little ignorant when he lays down the law so positively that non-military men are not amenable to military law, or liable to trial by a court-martial. A European clerk, not a military man in any sense of the term, was tried by court-martial at Mhow some years ago for frauds committed in the Commissariat Office. He was sentenced to a term of "imprisonment," and the sentence being approved and confirmed by the Major-General Commanding the Mhow Division of the Army, the prisoner was sent down to the Bombay House of Correction to undergo his sentence. Fortunately for him, though unfortunately for the cause of military justice, General Farrell's committing warrant specified hard labour as part of the punishment, although the sentence made no mention of that, and the clerk took to it with alacrity at first, but when he thought he "had enough" he demanded his release from illegal punishment, and got it, too. The military authorities were only too glad to let him out of jail quietly. So this court-martial du vous cognizance of offences committed by non-military offenders, and confirming officers "come down" on them, too heavily sometimes, it would appear.

REMINISCOR.

We are obliged to "Reminiscor," and insert his letter because it may be useful to call attention to the fact that non-military men are sometimes improperly sent before courts-martial in times of peace. But our own remarks, which have been commented on, were of course directed to cases where martial law had been proclaimed. We may say that we had especially in view the case of the Baptist Missionary, who was executed in Jamaica, and the men who were hung or flogged there by sentence of court-martial, on little or no evidence.—ED. B.G.

MILITARY ITEMS.

THE 2nd Battalion 7th Royal Fusiliers, on return from Afghanistan, will be transferred from the Bombay to the Madras Presidency, and will be stationed at Bellary and Madras, the head-quarters being located at the former station.

The destination of the 5th regiment Native Infantry has been changed from Sholapore to Deesa, to which station the Depôt has been ordered to move at once from Sholapore.

No. 2, and not No. 1 Mountain Battery, as previously announced, returning from Afghanistan, proceeds to Poona.

COURTS-MARTIAL.

A GENERAL Court-Martial assembled at Agra on Friday, 4th March, to try Gunner Joseph Lawson, of O. Battery 3rd Brigade Royal Artillery on the following charges :—

1st.—With conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in having at Agra, on the 22nd February 1881, knocked down and kicked Gunner William Mathews, of the same battery, thereby causing damage to his shirt, to the value of twelve annas, or thereabouts.

2nd.—With having at Agra, on the 22nd February 1881, struck with his clenched fist Bombardier Frederick Henley, of the same battery, at the same time using to him insubordinate language in substance, and to the effect following ; that is say, "You old * * *, you will suffer for this before you leave the station ;" and thereafter offered violence to the said Bombardier Frederick Henley, by throwing a brick at him, the said Bombardier Frederick Henley being his superior officer and being in the execution of his office.

The Court found the prisoner guilty of both charges, and sentenced him to undergo penal servitude for a period of five years ; and further to be discharged with ignominy from Her Majesty's Service. The proceedings are endorsed "confirmed" by the Commander-in-Chief.

At a General Court-Martial, assembled at Thull Chotiali on the 28th February, Jemadar Baboo Naik Telakyker, 15th Bombay N. I., was charged with conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in having when on the march between Bazar and Gwal, on or about 28th October 1880, failed to obey the order of Lieutenant Lyde, his superior officer, to the effect that none of the men under his, the Jemadars's, command should take off any portion of their clothing while halted. He was found guilty and sentenced to be placed two steps lower in the list of his rank. This sentence also was confirmed.

MY breasts were losing daily the allowance required to nurse my baby, who was failing away by the eye and I found myself in the sad alternative either of weaning him at a season too dangerous for his health or to see him dwindling away from want of food. On the emergency I heard of Dusart's Syrup of Lactophosphate of Lime, which I took. What was not my delight, seeing in a short time my breast restored to a plentiful secretion, and my baby improve in strength and health. I owe this public testimony to the inventor of this precious medicine.—MRS. LOUNGER, Winchester.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

THE GAIETY THEATRE.—There was a fair house at the Theatre on Saturday evening, and the performance "went" extremely well. To-night we see the favourite "Pinafore" to be performed.

VAGRANT.—Edward Johnstone, being declared a vagrant, was sent by Mr. Cooper, Chief Presidency Magistrate, to the Government Work-house.

MILL ACCIDENT.—Dugroo Mahadoo, a Hindoo lad employed in the Alliance Spinning and Weaving Mills, had one of his hands crushed in the machinery. He was removed to the Sir J. J. Hospital for treatment.

BREACH OF PORT TRUST RULES.—Jogee Jairam and three other tindals were charged on Saturday with sailing their vessels in the fair way without exhibiting a light. On conviction they were fined by Mr. Cooper Rs. 10 each.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A Coroner's inquest was held over the body of a Hindoo labourer named Sawalia Sewa, about twenty-five years of age, who was found dead in his bed on Friday morning. The jury returned a verdict that death was caused by heart-disease.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.—The following is a summary of cases prosecuted by the agents of the S. P. C. A. during the week ending the 23rd inst :—Horses, 1 lame ; bullocks, 18 lame, 28 sore necks, 1 emaciated. Total number of cases 51 ; amount of fines, Rs. 84-8.

THE KHOJA LEADERSHIP.—We are desired to state that the paragraph under the above heading which appeared in our issue of Friday last is in some respects misleading, inasmuch as a perusal of it might convey the impression that the spiritual leadership of the Khoja community is not, as it is in reality, an hereditary office. We are also desired to state that at the meeting referred to in the paragraph as having been held on the Wednesday previous, His Highness Ali Shah did not, as reported, ask whether the Khojas were willing to accept him as their head, but merely inquired whether the assemblage was pleased to see him in his father's place.

DISHONEST POLICE CONSTABLE.—At the Girguam Police Court, Malharee Tatia was charged before Mr. Dosabhoy Framji with neglecting and committing a violation of duty in his office, and a breach of the orders given him by his superior officer, Mr. Brewin, Superintendent of Police. The prisoner was ordered by Mr. Brewin to watch the movements of a man named Aboo, and to apprehend him while in the act of pawning articles to a Marwadee shopkeeper in the bazaar. Aboo was accordingly arrested, but the prisoner having entered into a private understanding with Aboo, divided the proceeds with him. The prisoner was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 100.

ASSAULT ON THE HIGH SEAS.—Thomas Rogers, a seaman belonging to the British s. s. Tom Martin, was on Saturday, charged before Mr. Cooper, at the Fort Police Court, with assaulting Mr. James Raison, Captain of the vessel, on the high seas. It appears that during the passage of the vessel from Jedda to Bombay a quarrel took place between the steward and the accused on the 13th instant. The matter was eventually reported to the captain, who asked the prisioner to go forward. The latter refused to stir, and the Captain having pushed him forward, he took up a tin-pot with intent to strike. The blow, however, was warded off. The charge being proved, the accused was sentenced to rigorous imprisonment for ten weeks.

THEFT AT MESSRS. TREACHER AND COMPANY'S SHOP.—At the Fort Police Court on Saturday, Mungal Gopal, a servant in the employ of Messrs. Treacher and Company's shop in the Fort, and Pascoal Rogers were charged before Mr. Cooper, the first with stealing sundry articles, including seven bottles of brandy, of the collective value of Rs. 21, from the company's shop, and the other with dishonestly receiving the property, knowing it to be stolen. The first prisoner sent the articles to the second, who offered it for sale to the proprietor of the London tiffin rooms. The articles being suspected to be stolen, the proprietor of the tiffin rooms handed them to the police, who traced them to Messrs. Treacher and Co. The prisoners, on conviction, were sentenced to rigorous imprisonment for six and three months, respectively.

ALLEGED CHARGE OF DEFAMATION.—A Parsee named Cursetji Furdoonjee, an employé in the Bombay Municipality, appeared before Mr. Cooper on Saturday and applied for a summons against Mr. K. N. Kabrajee, editor of the Rast Goftar newspaper, charging him with defamation with respect to an article which appeared in the paper about a month ago, commenting upon the conduct of the complainant. About a month ago he had brought a charge of assault against a Parsee youth residing at the Agiary Lane, which was tried before Mr. Ryan. In the article in question he (the complainant) was described as "a mean fellow," inasmuch as Mr. Ryan was said to have remarked that he had gone to the house of the defendant with a view to provoke a quarrel. The complainant alleged that no such remark was made by the magistrate. Mr. Cooper remarked that if the complainant did go to the house of the defendant with a view to provoke a quarrel, the editor's comments were fair and justifiable, and he deserved to be called a mean person. The complainant then left the court, stating that he would appear again with his solicitor.

ARCHBISHOP STEINS.—We are glad to believe that there is every reason to discredit the rumour of Archbishop Steins' death. Our New Zealand papers to the 4th March mention not a word about Auckland. What a caution to editors, to keep in mind the old dictum de mortuis nil nisi bonum !—Catholic Examiner.

ILLNESS OF MAHARANI JAMNABAI.—A Baroda correspondent of a native paper, writing on the 20th inst., remarked :—I must head my letter with a rather distressing news this time. Maharani Jamnabai Sahib has been ailing-these four or five days. The illness is thought to be rather serious, and on one occasion it reached to such a pitch that her life even was despaired of. Happily the catastrophe was averted ; and Her Highness seems to be fairly on the way to recovery, though there are apprehensions still of a relapse.

A LIGHT PUNISHMENT.—Four intoxicated mariners belonging to H. M.'s steamer Jumna, hired a jolly-boat the other night to go aboard of their vessel, and when half way there, threw the four native boatmen into the sea, rowed the boat to their ship, when they turned her adrift and went on board. The men could swim, and were happily picked up by a dubash's boat before their strength gave out and before falling in with a shark. The four seamen of H. M. were convicted (of what ?) and sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 30 each, and Rs. 10 each towards the cost of prosecution. We confess that this sentence takes us by surprise. It is a marvel and a mercy that none of the Native boatmen lost their lives, but the act of throwing four men overboard in the Bombay Harbour and at the midnight hour, does not seem to us one that can be safely treated as a freak to be condoned by a fine of three pounds.—Bombay Guardian.

THE LANOWLI CAMP-MEETING.—The Camp-meeting at Lanowli commenced this year on Wednesday morning of last week, and continued till last Monday evening, when it was formally closed, though some persons still remained on the ground and had meetings on Tuesday. There was a goodly gathering, not perhaps so numerous as at one or two of the previous meetings. There were 26 tents pitched in a circle at a very well-chosen spot, the centre being occupied by a large shamiana under which the meetings were held. The daily programme of meetings was as follows : at 7-30 a.m. a prayer-meeting ; at 11 a.m. preaching ; at 3-30 p.m. a children's meeting or a parents' meeting ; 5 p.m. a vernacular meeting ; 7-30 p.m. preaching. The Rev. D. O. Fox presiding elder Bombay disirict, had the general direction of the meetings. The following ministers preached : Northrop, Dr. Fraser, Jacobs, Blackstock, Morton, Shreves, Bowen, Fox. The following were also present and took an active part in the meetings : Stephens, Grechig, Moore, Bruce. Mr. Gladwin arrived on Monday, from Burmah via Calcutta, in restored health, we are thankful to say. There a was Love-feast on Sunday morning, followed by the Lord's Supper. At some of the vernacular meetings a large number of natives were present, and were addressed in Marathi, Hindustani, and Tamil. The dietary arrangements were excellent. The expenses of the meeting were fully met by contributions on the ground. Many will long remember the beautiful sylvan spot with its pillared aisles of noble trees and daring creepers, as the place where the Lord sweetly met them and spake peace to them. It is not impossible that some who were occasionally present had their enjoyment marred by the ebullitions of Methodistic fervency, but in these days when formalism and conventionalism lay such weights upon Christians, such demonstrations may be borne with, when they are seen to be the overflow of genuine feeling.—Ibid.

A NATIVE PAPER.—The Mahratta appears to be trying to convince the authorities of the advisability of retaining the Vernacular Press Act. In the latest number of this paper, in a leading article on "the State of Jinjeera," we find the following passages :—"We humbly ask what right had the British Government to interfere with the internal administration of affairs in a State which was neither a tributary nor a dependency ? Certainly it had no right to do so, but trampling upon the policy of non-interference, Mr. Havelock, a civilian from Bombay, was sent to Janjeera with 150 soldiers to investigate matters. The Chief could have fired off the hundred and fifty men the case (sic) and there, and made Mr. Havelock a prisoner ; for, according to the treaty rights, Mr. Havelock had no business to enter the State with his hundred and fifty myrmydons without permission from the Chief. But the Chief was sane enough to believe that the British Government was open to conviction, and that a war of words was quite sufficient. This lack of sufficient sense and pluck clearly showed that the blue Siddi blood had ceased to flow in the veins of the Janjeera chiefs, and that the then chief was but a fox in the lion's skin. The British Government, therefore, contrary to all national law and prickings of conscience, assumed for themselves the suzerain rights, and not only offered to sit but actually sat in judgment upon the Chief. * * * The reader must recollect that it is not by conquest alone that the territory has been extended ; but also by concessions extorted from friends or from unfortunate allies. On some is imposed the subsidiary system ; in the case of others lawful succession is set aside ; in the case of a few more, attempts are made to ruin their finances and indirectly to force the Native Princes to oppress their subjects. This last furnishes the benign rulers with a pretext for interference and absorption at last. Janjeera appears to have fallen a victim to the last kind. Such is the short history of the State of Janjeera till the time its independence was wrested from its Chief."

THE SILICATE PAINT COMPANY.
(J. B. ORR & CO., PROPRIETORS.)

IN a recent advertisement a Liverpool Firm styled GRIFFITHS, HEIDDE and Co. are designated "Original promoters of the Silicate Paint Co."
Mr. Thos. Griffiths, of Liverpool, is the only person of that name who was ever connected with the Company, and now retired and we have his authority for declaring the above to be a wilful misstatement.
Buyers of the Silicate Paints and the famous "Charlton White" are cautioned to see that their orders are given through the accredited Agents.
Imitations of our Goods are sought to be foisted on the market, under the name of "Sanitary Paints" and otherwise, so our Trade Mark in every case should be demanded, whithout which there is no guarantee.
